PRESS RELEASE

Resumption of personal appointment system for Consular Services

We are pleased to announce resumption of personal appointment system for availing consular services at the Consulate with effect from 25.01.2022. However, in view of COVID-19 pandemic, personal visit to Consulate will be allowed only with prior appointments.

2. Fresh guidelines for consular services in view of the Covid-19 pandemic are as follows:

- Passport, Visa, OCI services and Misc. Consular services: Applicants for passport, visa, OCI services and Misc. Consular services may continue to send their applications for these services only by post to the Consulate. Documentary requirements and fee (payable through bank transfer) for the various services may be checked on the website of the Consulate at <https://www.cgimunich.gov.in/>.
- Power of Attorneys and Affidavits: Applicants who intend to have their signature attested on Power of Attorneys and Affidavits may schedule their appointment at the following link: <https://www.cgimunich.gov.in/get-appointment>.

3. In case of any other emergency, Indian nationals and persons of Indian origin can reach the Consulate at the emergency number mentioned on the website.

4. Please note that in case of personal visit to Consulate with prior appointment, 2G plus corona guidelines will apply.
