

ORGANIZERS

Agricultural and Processed Food Products Export Development Authority (APEDA), a statutory body under the Ministry of Commerce, Government of India is mandated to develop and promote the export of various agricultural commodities and provides a platform to showcase

India's quality produce to the global market. APEDA is also the secretariat for National Programme for Organic production, which provides an institutional support for the accreditation of certification agencies and surveillance and monitoring of organic certification process. APEDA plays pivotal role in developing the database of the mandated products, markets, services, and distribution of related information to exporters. The authority extends financial assistance under its agriculture and promotion plan scheme under various components like market development, infrastructure development and quality development.
